Come One Come All to Prosper 101 on September 2

Prosper, Texas, August 25, 2008 – All Prosper citizens, young, old, with students, or without are invited to attend the second annual Prosper 101 event on September 2 from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at the Rogers Middle School gymnasium.

This event introduces new residents to Prosper officials, businesses, services, churches and community leaders. It also allows long-time residents to see who is new in town and what is available to them as well. "With our town growing so quickly, it's hard to keep up with changes. Prosper 101 lets us all see what is happening in our community," said Rogers Middle School PTO president and La Cima resident, Tania Keidinger.

More than 44 vendors will be exhibiting at booths lining the Rogers Middle school gymnasium. The vendors include:

A+ Collision	Merrideth York Personal Training	Prosper Town Administration
All Pets Care Center	Name That Balloon	Rucker PTO
Allstate Insurance Baker PTO	Organize & Prosper	St. Paul's Episcopal Church
Balloons by Design	Pampered Chef	The Benefits Group (ID Theft)

Also at 6:30 p.m., town and school district officials will be hosting the ribbon-cutting ceremony for the new state-of-the-art Rogers Middle School. This is the first opportunity for the entire community to visit the facility. Purdy's is offering hamburger dinners for $10 a person in the school cafeteria. The Middle School is also having its Open House during the evening's events. For information on the meal and Open House, please contact Laura McGlaun at 972.346.9114 or LMcGlaun@prosper-isd.net.

Prosper 101 is hosted by the Rogers Middle School PTO. Rogers Middle School PTO is a parent organization that exists to aid the school staff in meeting the needs of its students.
